CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 - Interpretation

- 1.1 These here Bylaws have been approved and accepted in accordance with the FIAS Statutes in particular Art. 1.1 "FIAS Bylaws", Art. 27.4 "Congress Proceedings" and Art. 38 "Powers of the Executive Committee".
- 1.2 In the event of any inconsistency or contradiction between these Bylaws and the FIAS Statutes, the FIAS Statutes shall prevail.
- 1.3 All defined terms shall have the meaning given to them in the FIAS Statutes unless otherwise defined herein.
- 1.4 Unless specified, the Congress refers both to the Ordinary or Extraordinary Congress.
- 1.5 The term "FIAS Technical & Competition Rules" is the generic term given to the set of technical & competition rules that apply to all events organised under the auspices of FIAS.
- 1.6 The term "FIAS Competition" shall have the meaning given to such term in the FIAS Technical & Competition Rules.

CHAPTER 2 CONGRESS

Article 2 - Location

- 2.1 The Ordinary Congress shall be held annually, preferably one day preceding the start of the World Championship at the invitation FIAS and hosted by the National Federation, who organises the Championship event.
- 2.2 If an Extraordinary Congress is called for, the date and venue for the same shall be approved by the FIAS Executive Committee within a month after receiving a request.
- 2.3 The National Federation hosting the Congress must use its best endeavours to ensure that all delegates are able to obtain the necessary visas for entry into the country and ensure that suitable hotel accommodation are made available for all delegates, including those whose costs are not covered by FIAS.

Article 3 - Duration

- 3.1 The Ordinary Congress shall be held over a maximum period of two (2) days.

- 3.2 The Extraordinary Congress shall be held over the necessary period.

Article 4 - Expenses

- 4.1 For the Extraordinary Congress, FIAS shall not pay any cost for the delegates unless otherwise resolved by the FIAS Executive Committee.

Article 5 - Delegates

- 5.1 The full names of all delegates, in particular the name of the delegate with the right to vote, shall be notified to the FIAS Headquarters no later than ten (10) working days before the opening day of the Congress. After this time, no changes may be made to the identity of the voting delegate, except in extraordinary circumstances.
- 5.2 Prior to the commencement of the Congress, FIAS reserves the right to request any or all delegates to provide documentary proof evidencing that they hold valid office as president, vice president, Secretary General / Chief Executive Officer, Executive Committee member, elected member, honorary president or honorary member of their National Federation and proof that they hold the legal mandate to represent that National Federation at the Congress.
- 5.3 A National Federation is permitted to designate a maximum two (2) representatives to participate as its delegates in any Extra Ordinary Congress.

Article 6 - Chair

- 6.1 The President shall chair the Congress.
- 6.2 If the President is unable to attend the Congress, the Secretary General shall Chair the Congress.
- 6.3 The President shall ensure that the Congress is conducted in compliance with the FIAS Statutes and these Bylaws. He /She shall open, conduct and close all the debates/discussions. He /She shall grant delegates permission to speak and allot the time within which they may do so.
- 6.4 The President may propose to prolong the debates; the debates shall be prolonged if such a proposal is accepted by a majority of the votes.
- 6.5 The President may call to order any delegate who:
- a) deviates from the subject, exceeds the speaking time allotted to him/her or contravenes in any other way the FIAS Statutes, these Bylaws, the Code of Ethics the Disciplinary Code and the Procedural Rules;
  - b) disturbs the debates or the Congress proceedings by his/her behaviour;
- 6.6 If the call to order is not effective, the President may, depending on the gravity of the delegate's behaviour, decide to:
- a) withdraw him/her speaking time;

- b) reprimand him / her;
- c) exclude him / her from one or several debates;
- d) remove him / her from the Congress;

6.7 If the errant delegate does not comply with the President's decision as per Art. 6.5 and 6.6 above, then the President may initiate disciplinary or other legal action against the relevant delegate.

Article 7 - Interpreters

7.1 The FIAS Secretary General shall appoint qualified interpreters to translate the debates into the official languages of the Congress.

Article 8 - Debates

8.1 No delegate shall speak unless the President has granted permission to him/her to do so.

8.2 A delegate may only speak a maximum of twice on the same subject. If the President deems it necessary, he may authorize the delegate to speak again.

Article 9 - Votes on a Decision

9.1 Voting shall be carried out either by electronic system, secret ballot or by the open ballot / voting cards. Voting with open ballot can include raising voting cards (blue, red and white cards). The manner in which the voting will be carried out as may be approved and notified by the Executive Committee prior to the Congress.

The FIAS Secretary General shall conduct and manage the voting process. Counting of votes will be carried out by scrutineers appointed by the Congress.

9.2 Before each vote, the FIAS Secretary General shall read aloud the text of the proposal and clearly explain the voting procedure to the Congress.

9.3 No one is permitted to address the Congress during the votes and until after the final results have been announced.

9.4 The FIAS Secretary General shall announce the results.

9.5 The Congress may then decide whether to carry out an examination of the subject, as a whole or in stages (i.e. article by article).

Article 10 - Votes on Elections

10.1 Before each vote, the FIAS Secretary General shall explain the voting procedure to the Congress. The FIAS Secretary General shall conduct and manage the voting process.

- 10.2 No one is permitted to address the Congress during the votes and until after all final results have been announced.
- 10.3 The President shall announce the result of each ballot.
- 10.4 The FIAS Secretary General shall preserve the voting ballots (paper record or electronic voting system results) at the FIAS Headquarters for four (4) years from the date of the vote or until the next Congress, whichever is the later.

CHAPTER 3 MAINTENANCE OF MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING RIGHTS

Article 11 - Membership

- 11.1 A FIAS recognised member National Federation can only be responsible for governing the sport of SAMBO in their Nation. It is generally prohibited for a National Federation and/or its President to be responsible for governing any other sporting activity and other similar combat sports as may be determined by FIAS unless so exempted by the FIAS President in writing.
- 11.2 A National Member Federation President and Executive Committee members must be Citizens holding a valid passport or Permanent Residents of that country. In the event the President or any Executive Committee member holds dual nationality, he or she must decide upon one country they wish to represent and provide proof that it is his or her country of residence, if requested to do so.

Article 12 - Membership Fees

- 12.1 Each National Federation shall pay an annual Membership fee of USD 600 to FIAS.
- 12.2 This fee is due on the 1st of January of each year.
- 12.3 For the period this annual fee remains unpaid, the National Federation will not benefit from any of FIAS's development program and will not be allowed to participate in any bidding process for hosting any FIAS Competition.
- 12.4 If a National Federation does not pay any annual fees due at least six (6) months prior the Ordinary Congress, that National Federation may as per FIAS Executive Committee decision, lose its membership rights in accordance with the FIAS Statutes.
- 12.5 If a National Federation does not pay its annual fees due two (2) months prior to the Extraordinary Congress, it might lose its right to participate and vote at the Extraordinary Congress, subject to the resolution of the FIAS Executive Committee.

Article 13 - Leadership within the National Federation

- 13.1 No Member National Federation is authorized to remain without an elected National president for a period exceeding six (6) months.
- 13.2 If the president of the National Federation is absent due to any cause, is incapable of carrying out his / her function as president or has been suspended by FIAS or any other body, FIAS may call upon the National Federation to organise a new presidential election.
- 13.3 The new presidential election must be held within 3 months of notification by FIAS.

CHAPTER 4 EXCLUSION AND SUSPENSION OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

Article 14 - Exclusion

- 14.1 If a National Member Federation is excluded from FIAS Membership by the EC in accordance with the FIAS Statutes, subject to ratification by the Congress, FIAS will no longer recognise that National Federation as responsible for governing the sport of SAMBO in that country.
- 14.2 In such circumstances the EC may decide to admit and recognise a new Provisional Member to replace the excluded National Federation until the next Congress and subject to ratification by the FIAS Congress.
- 14.3 In case of Exclusion of the National Member Federation and no provisional Member is admitted as replacement in the interim period, then subject to the approval of the FIAS EC, SAMBO athletes of the suspended NSF may be permitted to participate in FIAS Events under the FIAS Banner/Flag.
- 14.4 If the EC decision to exclude the National Federation is ratified by Congress, the new provisional Member shall be eligible to have its membership ratified in accordance with the FIAS Statutes.

Article 15 - Suspension

- 15.1 Except in cases of a provisional suspension, if a National Federation is suspended in accordance with the FIAS Statutes, the FIAS Executive Committee or the Disciplinary Commission must specify the length of the suspension.

Article 16 - Participation in FIAS Competitions

- 16.1 If the suspension is for a period of one year or more, then SAMBO athletes and Coaches from the suspended National Federation shall not be permitted to participate in any FIAS Competition. Officials from the suspended National Federation shall not be permitted to participate in any FIAS Competition for the duration of the period of suspension. The provisions of this Art. 15.1 shall apply to all provisional suspensions also.

- 16.2 If the suspension is for a period of less than one year, then SAMBO athletes and Coaches from the suspended National Federation shall be permitted to participate in FIAS Competitions provided such SAMBO athletes and Coaches are registered by the National Olympic Committee and / or highest sports authority of the country to which such suspended National Federation is affiliated or as may be decided by the FIAS president under the FIAS Banner /Flag.
- 16.3 The SAMBO athletes shall participate under the FIAS flag, the FIAS anthem shall be used instead of the anthem of the suspended National Federation and the SAMBO athletes' and Coaches' uniform / clothing shall not bear any symbol or colour of the suspended National Federation. Officials from the suspended National Federation shall not be permitted to participate in any FIAS Competition for the duration of the period of suspension.

Article 17 - Communication with FIAS

- 17.1 If the suspension is for a period of less than one year, the suspended National Federation shall be permitted to communicate with the FIAS Offices. If the suspension is for a period of one year or more, the suspended National Federation shall only be entitled to communicate with the FIAS Offices via one designated official from the suspended National Federation (such representative to be approved by FIAS).
